

I listen to KLOVE on my way to work everyday. It is a nice change to be able to listen to a station where all that you here is positive songs. I wish that I could get this station where I live so I could make sure that my 8 year old daughter could listen to good clean music without all of the other trash that the rest of the world likes.